Re: United States v. Jacky McComber
Crim. No. ELH-21-036
The Court's Letter of May 31, 2024 (ECF # 472)

Dear Judge Hollander:

I have received the Court's letter of last Friday's date. In it, the Court imposed a deadline of "by the close of business" on today, Thursday, June 7th and next Wednesday, June 12th for the government to file its two sentencing reply briefs in this case.

Given that we have in the past had some interesting discussions about the meaning of "the close of business" in today's world, can the Court have your Judicial Assistant Ms. Warren advise me whether that means 5:30 p.m., or whether we can treat that as meaning midnight on each day?

Very Truly Yours,

Jefferson M. Gray
